New Kid by Jerry Craft J GN CRAFT

Jordan Banks is a 12-year-old black boy who experiences culture shock when his parents enroll him in a prestigious, predominantly white private school.

He soon finds himself torn between two worlds and not fitting into either one. Can Jordan learn to navigate his new school culture while keeping his neighborhood friends and staying true to himself?

When Stars are Scattered By Victoria Jamieson and Omar Mohamed J GN JAMIESON

Omar and his younger brother, Hassan, have spent most of their lives in Dadaab, a refugee camp in Kenya, where there is never enough food and no access to medical care. When Omar gets the opportunity to go to school, he knows it might be a chance to change their future, but it would also mean leaving his brother, the only family member he has left, every day.

The Crossover by Kwame Alexander J GN ALEXANDER

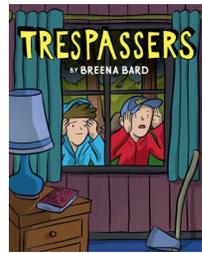

Thanks to their dad, Josh Bell and his twin brother, Jordan, are kings on the court. But Josh has more than basketball in his blood — he's got mad beats too, which help him find his rhythm when it's all on the line.

Baby-Sitters Little Sister: Karen's Witch by Katy Farina

Karen Brewer lives next door to Mrs. Porter, who wears long robes and has wild gray hair. Mrs. Porter has a black cat named Midnight and always seems to be working in her garden. Karen isn't supposed to spy on her neighbor, but she's determined to prove that Mrs. Porter is a witch named Morbidda Destiny!

Trespassers by Breena Bard J GN BARD

Gabby Woods is looking forward to another summer vacation at her family's lake house, even though she would rather bury herself in a mystery novel than make new friends. But soon, Gabby meets Paige from Chicago, and the pair get caught up in a local mystery: the sudden disappearance of a glamorous couple and the fancy lake house they left behind. They might have to trespass on this abandoned lake house.
