2019 Library Budget Proposition

In December, 2018, the Community Library of DeWitt & Jamesville Board of Trustees unanimously approved a proposed 2019 budget that controls costs while allocating resources where they are most needed.

For our 2019 Budget Proposition on the upcoming May ballot, the Library is seeking an additional $42,530, or a 3% increase over the 2018 tax levy. This modest increase, the first since 2016, will be used to cover additional payroll expenses associated with the increase in the NYS Minimum Wage, allowing the Library to maintain wage equity for affected employees over the next two years. In addition, the proposed budget will support expanded programming in the areas of literacy, STEM education, teen life skills, the arts, and outreach services to the community.

Please take the time to vote on the Library's Budget Proposition on Tuesday, May 21, 2019. The vote will be held at the Jamesville-DeWitt High School from 7:00am – 9:00pm.

Executive Director

3. If Sunday is not good for you, what day/time would you prefer?
_____ Day _____ Time

4. Do you have any recommendations for groups or individuals to perform here?

Thank you for your time and input.

Discover Your Heritage

Explore your family history at the Library!

Have you seen our new Genealogy Collection Guide? It's full of library databases, books, and free websites to guide your family history research. The guide also includes step-by-step directions to access Ancestry.com Library Edition, as well as CLD&J's online historic newspaper databases. The Genealogy Collection Guide is available in the library's upper level browsing room or on our website at <https://cldandj.org/collections.html#Adult>

The library will also be hosting the following programs this spring to help you get started on your family research:

Introduction to Ancestry.com Workshop Thursday, March 14th at 11:00am Saturday, April 20th at 3:00pm

For those of you who are new to the world of genealogy, make sure to sign-up for one of our Introduction to Ancestry.com workshops this spring. This workshop will teach you the basics of Ancestry.com Library Edition, from searching to saving family records. Bring your own personal laptop or device, if possible. Registration is required, but please sign up for only one session.

Genealogy Lab Thursdays, March 7, April 11 & May 9 from 10:30am-12:00pm

CLD&J offers a monthly "Genealogy Lab" for individuals interested in researching their family history, whether beginner or advanced. The Lab is an informal work session for anyone looking to explore library resources and genealogy databases. Reference Librarian Kara Conley will be on hand to answer any questions, if needed. Please bring a laptop or device that can connect to the internet. Registration encouraged.

Reference Librarian

The Great Give Back 2019

Consider donating to those in need during the CLD&J's 2019 Great Give Back campaign.

Thanks to overwhelming response from our patrons, we're partnering with the Jamesville Dewitt Ecumenical Food Pantry (JDEFP) again this spring. During March and April, the library will collect food and supplies (see list below photo) for JDEFP. Look for our donation bins near the Children's Programming Room starting March 1st.

During school spring break the library will hold a service project for students to decorate birthday bags for JDEFP. The bags contain items including cake mixes and party supplies. The pantry gives these bags to clients who have an upcoming birthday. The Great Give Back Birthday Bag Project & Ice Cream Social will be held on Thursday, April 18 at 2:30pm for grades K—8.

Emily Wormuth,
Children's Librarian

Here's what the JDEFT is most in need of. Please bring items to the library between March 1 and April 19 in grocery-store size boxes and containers (not supersized).

Cake Mixes
Canned Frosting
Birthday Candles
Plates and Napkins (birthday themed)
Birthday Party supplies (banners, party hats & noise makers)
9X13 Aluminum pan with lid
Canned fruit
Jelly (grape or strawberry)
Mayonnaise
Spaghetti Sauce
Shampoo
Body Wash
Toothpaste

Tech from the Hive at the CLD&J

3D Scanning (Available Now)

Capture your world with the Library's new 3D scanner. The CLD&J has purchased a sleek and robust 3D scanner for public use.

The Structure Sensor 3D Scanner by Occipital works with the Library's iPad Pro. This high-tech scanner can create 3D images of objects that can be modified and, with a little tweaking, can be printed on a 3D printer!

Recently, our Library staff demoed the 3D scanner and the video is available to watch online at: <https://youtu.be/YgeE0AQ0rl>.

To use our 3D scanner, get certified by our library staff. Call for an appointment (Wednesdays at 3:00pm) or come to one of our 3D scanning programs scheduled quarterly.

Projector for Loan (Available Now)

Hosting an event and in need of a projector? The Library has you covered.

Patrons may borrow our Epson multimedia projector for up to 3 days. Audio and video cables are also available to borrow along with the device. us your requirements and the Library can provide the tools you need to rock your next presentation, watch that movie, or add a little life to that party.

Our staff is available to demo the unit during a One-on-One Tech Help Session (see online calendar at: www.CLDandJ.org for schedule).

CNY Storytellers Sponsorship (As of January 2019)

The Community Library of DeWitt & Jamesville has begun a partnership with the CNY Storytellers group. We are very excited about the opportunity to support storytelling conversations in our community, from the most experienced storytellers to those just learning this ancient craft.

The CNY Storytellers meet at the library monthly on the fourth Sunday of the month. The Library is currently in the process of organizing storytelling-related events that highlight this community partnership. Watch for announcements in the coming months about these exciting collaborative events.

Don't forget to check us out on our Twitch Channel, Community Library Creates, and find out about programs, services, and technology like Pixel Pro. 3D Scanning, and more. www.twitch.tv/communitylibrarycreates.

Community Connections: Volunteering @ CLD&J

Our Summer Reading Program (SRP) last year was bigger than ever before. We had nearly 500 students in grades Pre-K through 12 register. This year we need your help! Teens currently in grades 9-12 can volunteer at the library this summer.

As a Volunteer, your duties could include: staffing the SRP desk in the Children's Room, taking reading reports, awarding prizes, helping prepare for children's programs, shelving books, and keeping the Children's Room tidy.

Applications are due by May 31st and training will take place before school officially ends on June 26th. Volunteers will work a set schedule of one 3 to 4 hour shift each week during SRP which will start Friday, June 28th and end Friday, August 16th.

Come in to get an application at the front desk or print a copy of the application out from our website at <https://www.cldandj.org/Files/TeenVolunteer.pdf>. If you have any questions please ask Nan our Teen Librarian. You can email her at nbrown@onlib.org or call the library at 315-446-3578.

The Magpie Murders By Anthony Horowitz

"A well-written classic British mystery with lots of twists."

The 2017 novel is perfect for fans of golden age mysteries.

Book editor Susan Ryeland reads the latest manuscript from a bestselling author, but the last chapter is missing and the author has died from a mysterious fall. Her modern day investigations are interspersed with the 1950s set mystery of the late author's novel.
