The Library accepts the following types of materials:

- Books (fiction, nonfiction, hardcover, paperback, large print, children's books)
- Music CDs, Books on CD, DVDs & Blu-ray discs
- Console/video games
- Other items of local, historical interest (please call ahead)

The Library does not accept:

Encyclopedias or Almanacs

Dated materials like travel guides or computer manuals

Magazines or Newspapers

Textbooks or test prep manuals
(If it has an edition number, it's probably a textbook.)

Incomplete books\missing cover
(Without a jacket description most books won't sell.)

Videotapes or audio cassettes
(We don't have a market or use for these anymore.)

Old, musty, yellowed or water-damaged books
(If it's been in the basement too long, we most likely can't take it.)

Spotted Edges
(Look carefully at the top of these books. That speckled stuff you see is likely mold or mildew. Don't accept these.)

Our Book Sale is a popular feature of our Library, and our patrons look for quality materials. If you think it looks like trash, chances are it is.
